

Business Group on Health

Newsroom FAQs

What is Business Group on Health?

Business Group on Health is the leading non-profit organization representing employers' perspectives on optimizing workforce strategy through innovative health, benefits and well-being solutions and on health policy issues. Since 1974, the Business Group has kept its membership informed of leading-edge thinking and action on health care cost and delivery, financing, affordability and experience with the health care system. It is headquartered in Washington, D.C. The Business Group is a credible, respected and trusted voice providing actionable solutions to employers' health and well-being challenges and serving as a tireless advocate for them on policy matters.

Who leads Business Group on Health?

Ellen Kelsay is Business Group on Health's president and CEO.

Who belongs to the Business Group?

Members are mostly Fortune 500 companies and mid-size employers—including the most innovative health care purchasers—who provide health coverage for more than 60 million employees, retirees, and their families in over 200 countries, and Health Industry Partners who provide thought leadership, products, services and solutions to employer members.

How many members are there?

The 440+ current members of Business Group on Health, who span over 30 industry sectors, form a dynamic community that leads initiatives to solve modern health care issues, shares best practices and enables benefits leaders to optimize business performance.

What are other benefits to membership?

The Business Group offers unbiased and objective expertise and research to member on what matters most to employers. Members network with each other and participate in multi-stakeholder groups from across the industry to share thought leadership and best practices. , Membership provides exclusive access to reports, research findings, data insights and policy updates that inform health, benefits and global workforce strategy. Business Group members also have exclusive opportunities to take part in leadership initiatives, benchmarking sessions and much more.

Where do I go to learn more?

www.businessgrouphealth.org

202-558-3000